Fosun International Limited (SEHK stock code: 00656) and its subsidiaries ("Fosun" or the "Group") today announced its financial results for the year ended 31 December 2018.

In 2018, Gross Revenue reached RMB 109.4 billion, up 24% from the previous year. The revenue contributed by the health and happiness ecosystems grew substantially, now representing over 67% of total revenue with 29% and 73% year-on-year increase respectively. Fosun Pharma was the main revenue contributor in the health ecosystem with Yuyuan and Atlantis Sanya the main revenue contributors in the happiness ecosystem. Excluding the one-off impact from the sale of US insurance company Ironshore in 2017, the insurance segment would have seen a pro-forma revenue increase of 3%. In the finance segment, revenue increased by 35%, mainly attributable to the business expansion of German private bank Hauck & Aufhäuser Privatbankiers AG ("H&A").

Mr. Guo Guangchang, Chairman of Fosun International said: "We are pleased to announce that in 2018, Fosun recorded its best ever year. With our record year and strong financial position, board has recommended an increase of 6% in our dividend to HK$0.37 per share."

"Looking ahead, I am confident that our twin-engine strategy of Industry Operations + Industrial Investment will continue to provide premium products and services to our family customers and drive long-term shareholder return. I am truly excited about the future prospects of Fosun. Once again, thank you, all of our shareholders, for your continued support."

Fosun-backed India's Logistic Unicorn Delhivery Raised USD 413mn in its Series F Financing

In March 2019, Fosun's portfolio company Delhivery Private Limited, one of the largest third-party logistics player in India, has joined the unicorn club after its $413 million series F funding led by Softbank Vision Fund. Existing investors Carlyle and Fosun also participated in this round of financing.

Fosun completed its first investment in Delhivery in May 2017, which was jointly propelled by China Momentum Fund L.P. under Fosun and Fosun RZ Capital, and funded by China Momentum Fund L.P..

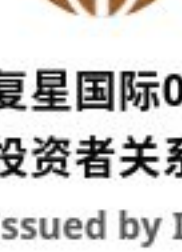

Foshan Chan Cheng Hospital Ranks First among Non-public Hospitals in China

The Institute of Asclepius Hospital Management launched the 2018 China Hospital Competitiveness List. Among them, Foshan Chancheng Hospital ranks first among the non-public hospitals in China for two consecutive years.

Overall, the competitiveness of non-public hospitals continue to improve. And Foshan Chan Cheng Hospital ranks first out of 20,011 private hospitals in China. In addition to further growth and efficiency building, Chan Cheng Hospital excels in the core measurement criteria of medical technology and academic influence, while it also attaches importance to the improvement of its soft power such as social responsibility and "patient-centered" medical services.
